FAMILY CAMPING

Family campgrounds for all types of tents and trailers provide drinking water, restrooms or latrines, pads for parking a car or trailer, picnic tables and fire rings. Many campgrounds offer much more, including electric hookups, hot showers, laundry facilities and camp stores. Pets are welcome on designated sites; dogs must be leashed. Several parks have a limited number of full service campsites with electric, sewer and water hookups.

Most parks have playgrounds for young children. Big kids can enjoy volleyball or basketball courts, mini golf courses, disc golf in the campground or nearby day-use areas at a number of parks. Many parks also have nature centers and offer summer programs such as guided hikes, creek walks, and interpretive talks. Special events and theme campouts are held at many state parks from May through October.

Accessible features, which may include extra wide paved pads on level grades, berms, modified picnic tables, fire rings and/or grills, are offered at designated sites at: Barkcamp, Cowan Lake, Deer Creek, Delaware, Mosquito Lake, Paint Creek, Pymatuning, Salt Fork and West Branch. Most of these campsites are located close to restrooms equipped with grab bars, wider doorways and stalls.

Primitive Camping and Backpacking

Walk-in tent sites are offered at Blue Rock, Dillon, Hocking Hills, Lake Hope, Mary Jane Thurston, Middle Bass Island, Mohican, Scioto Trail and Tar Hollow. Wolf Run has a primitive fly-in camp. Burr Oak, Caesar Creek, East Fork and Tar Hollow, along with Shawnee State Forest and Zaleski State Forest near Lake Hope, have backpacking trails with camping in designated campsites.

Group Camps

Group camping areas for organized groups, with capacity ranging from 15 to 250 campers, are offered at many parks. Some group camps are limited to youth groups only. Most group camp facilities are primitive, although many offer access to picnic shelters and other campground amenities.

Equestrian Camps

Campers and their horses are welcome at several equestrian camps with facilities ranging from primitive to fully-developed sites near modern campground amenities. Ohio State Parks offer more than 400 miles of bridle trails through all types of landscapes and terrain. State forests adjacent to several state parks provide more than 200 additional miles of bridle trails.

Boat Camping

Caesar Creek, Rocky Fork and Salt Fork offer designated boat camping areas for boaters who prefer to sleep aboard their own craft. Overnight docks are available at Burr Oak and Indian Lake. Muskingum River Parkway offers primitive boaters' campsites at Luke Chute Lock No. 5, east of Stockport. Boat campers must register with the park office to drop anchor in designated areas.

GETAWAY RENTALS

Getaway rentals offer lots of choices for a fun and affordable weekend escape or family vacation.

Rent-A-Camp tents are set up on a wooden platform at a scenic campsite with a fire ring and picnic table under a canopy. Some have electrical hookups on the campsite. Gear may include two cots with sleeping pads, a cooler, camp light and camp stove.

Yurts are furnished with futons or bunks, table and chairs, mini fridge and electrical outlets. Some also have microwaves or camp stoves. Yurt sites offer a picnic table, fire ring and gas or charcoal grill.

Camper Cabins sleep up to four on cots, bunks or bench beds. Rustic units at Blue Rock, Hocking Hills and Lake Alma offer basic gear, including a cooler and camp light. Deluxe camper cabins at other locations offer electric outlets, A/C or fan, mini fridge, and a microwave or camp stove or grill.

Cedar Cabins are a step up, with a combination of a private bedroom and a sleeping loft or bunks, and they feature a complete kitchen, private bathroom with shower and/or tub, furnished dining and living area, A/C and a porch or deck.

Most Ohio State Park campgrounds are open year-round for four seasons of fun, though many offer limited facilities in the winter. Camping reservations are encouraged, but not required. Walk-ins are subject to availability.

Camp check-in time is 3 p.m. Many parks offer self-registration for late arrivals. Each campground offers designated pet sites, and up to two pets are welcome to camp with park visitors. Pets must be on a leash and are not permitted in buildings, including getaway rentals. Families are asked to please clean up after their pets.
